Office of Legislative Counsel

Tuesday - 7 September 1954

1. Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Mandel, of the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, held a session with the [redacted] at which Mr. STAT STAT [redacted] served as interpreter and Messrs. Pforzheimer and [redacted] STAT STAT [redacted] were present. This session went extremely well, and counsel felt more enthusiastic about the witness who appeared much more knowledgeable today than at the previous meeting. Further sessions will be scheduled in order to continue preparing the case as expeditiously as possible.
